

Locational Knowledge

- ◆ There are 9 regions of England, divided further into counties, Worthing is in West Sussex.
- ◆ Worthing has the English Channel to the south and London to the north.

Place Knowledge

- ◆ Chesswood Road is a minor road (low traffic volume) and Brighton Road is a major road (high traffic volume).
- ◆ Worthing used to be rural, with mainly farmland
- ◆ Four-figure grid references help us to locate places on a map

Human Geography

- ◆ Most air pollution is created by humans
- ◆ Air pollution can cause breathing diseases in living things and disrupt Earth's natural cycles and plant growth
- ◆ Urban areas have high levels of air pollution which is the opposite to rural areas
- ◆ Bicycle lanes, electric transport and emission zones are strategies used to improve air quality

Word	Definition
Region	A large area within a country
County	A smaller area within a region, but larger than a city or town
Pollution	Anything that makes the earth dirty or unhealthy
Air quality	How clean or dirty the air is that we breathe
Sustainability	Is using natural resources to reduce harming how we take Earth's physical features
Vegetation	All living things that grow naturally in our area (plants, trees, flowers)
Emissions	Harmful gases that have been released into the atmosphere
Fossil fuels	Are coal or oil formed from remains of old organisms that can be used as a source of energy

Key Ordnance Survey Symbols

Wind turbine

Bus station

Toilets

