

Who is Andy Goldsworthy?

- Andy Goldsworthy is a sculptor and photographer who works in nature
- He rearranges natural items such as leaves, twigs and stones, to create patterned sculptures, then photographs his work
- His work often has repeated motifs of wavy lines, spirals and circles

Key Vocabulary

Vocabulary	Definition
Sculpture	3D art made by carving, modelling or placing materials together
Motifs	A repeating idea or theme in a work of art
3D	A solid object that has three dimensions: length, width and height

Key Skills

- Working together to develop and share their ideas
- Weaving items over and under, over and under