

Core Knowledge

- The fire started in Pudding Lane, London in 1666
- Lots of houses were made from wood or straw which burnt easily
- The houses were close together
- There wasn't a fire brigade, so people and soldiers used buckets of water
- Samuel Pepys wrote a diary

Key Vocabulary

Vocabulary	Definition
Bakery	A place where bread is made
Diary	A book where people keep a record of events
Monument	A statue or building made to remember a person or important event

Historical Context

Great Fire of London

Victorians

Modern day

